

NURSING ETHICS AND HEALTH CARE POLICY: BRIDGING LOCAL, NATIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL PERSPECTIVES

July 17, 2008

5:30PM -- Registration – At Woolsey Hall

6:30PM -- Dinner in the President's Room at Woolsey Hall

Speaker – Carol Taylor, Director, Center for Clinical Bioethics at Georgetown University

July, 18, 2008

8:30AM -- Continental Breakfast & Registration – At Harkness Auditorium Yale Medical School

9:30AM -- Opening Greetings from: Margaret Grey, Dean, Yale University School of Nursing

- David Smith, Director of the Yale Interdisciplinary Center for Bioethics

- Ann Williams, Acting Executive Director, Yale-China Association; Professor, Yale Univ.; Guest Professor, Central South School, Hunan, China

10:15AM -- Break

10:30AM -- Plenary Session – Tom Murray, President, Hastings Center

11:30Noon -- Lunch

12:45PM -- Plenary Session – Leyla Dinc, Hacettepe University, Ankara, Turkey

1:45PM – Break

--- Proceed to Yale School of Nursing ---

2:00PM – Concurrent Discussion Groups – At Yale School of Nursing

- Management Issues
- Elder Care
- Futility and Euthanasia
- Mental Health 1
- Mental Health 2
- Human Rights
- Undergraduate Education
- Nurse as Moral Agent
- Reproductive Issues

Sponsored by Yale University's Interdisciplinary Center for Bioethics, Yale Center for International Nursing Scholarship and Education, and
The International Centre for Nursing Ethics at the University of Surrey

NURSING ETHICS AND HEALTH CARE POLICY: BRIDGING LOCAL, NATIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL PERSPECTIVES

2

3:00PM -- Concurrent Discussion Groups

- Practice Issues
- Ethical Analysis
- Codes of Ethics
- End of Life Care
- Leadership
- Workforce
- Culture
- Religion
- Disaster

4:00PM – Break

4:15PM -- Concurrent Discussion Groups

- The Patient
- Futility and Euthanasia
- Education and Practice
- Reproductive Issues
- Resource Allocation
- Ethical Environment
- Mental Health 1
- Research Ethics
- End of Life Issues
- Disaster
- Human Rights

5:15PM – Close for the day

NURSING ETHICS AND HEALTH CARE POLICY:
BRIDGING LOCAL, NATIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL PERSPECTIVES

3

July, 19, 2008

8:30AM -- Continental Breakfast & Registration – At Harkness Auditorium Yale Medical School

9:00AM -- Recommence & Announcements

9:15AM -- Plenary Session – Panel Discussion by GOOD NURSE Study researchers –
(Samantha Pang, Emiko Konishi, Young-Rhan Um, Vickie Chen)

10:30AM -- Break

11:00AM -- Plenary Session – Alexey Brazhnikov, Dean Advanced Nursing Program, Sechnov
Moscow Medical Academy

12:00NOON – Lunch on your own

--- Proceed to Yale School of Nursing ---

1:15PM – Concurrent Discussion Groups – At Yale School of Nursing

- Practice Issues
- Culture
- Ethical Analysis
- Codes of Ethics
- Leadership
- End of Life Issues
- Resource Allocation
- Undergraduate Education
- Nurse as Moral Agent
- Research Ethics

2:15PM -- Concurrent Discussion Groups

- Management Issues
- The Patient
- Ethical Environment
- Education and Practice
- End of Life Care
- Elder Care
- Mental Health 2
- Workforce
- Religion

3:15PM -- Break

3:45PM -- Human Rights and Nursing Awards:

- Emmie Chanika from Malawi
- Sister Teresita Hinnegan from Philadelphia, PA, USA

5:00PM -- Plenary Session - Summary Discussion

5:30PM -- Close

