

Dementia Palliative Education Network (DPEN)

Training for Clinicians

Dementia Care Today

- Incomplete
- Inconsistent
- Inequitable

Optimal Dementia Care

- Feasible
- Actionable
- Comprehensive
- Measurable

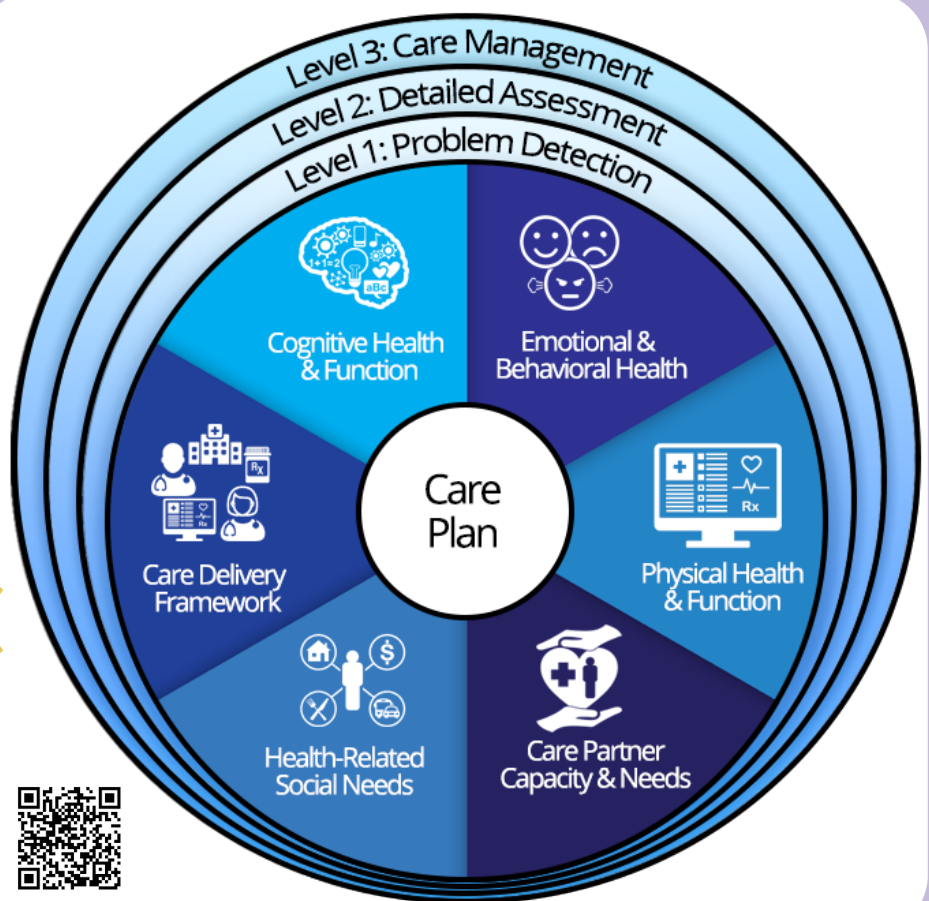

Nurses are Key Team Members Supporting Care Management

- Largest healthcare workforce
- Skilled in person-centered care
- Continuity of care
- Research and innovation

NEED FOR accessible, clinically relevant training

SOLUTION
Health Care Team Training in Six Domains of Health. Expert-designed, virtual, competency-based, and affordable.

Core DPEN RN Modules

- Introduction to Comprehensive Dementia Care for Nurses
- Dementia as a Chronic Condition
- Medical Management of Dementia
- General Medical Management in the Context of Dementia
- Social Determinants in Dementia Care
- Mood and Behavior Management for People Living with Dementia
 - Part 1 - Detection & Assessment
 - Part 2 - Management and Education
- Care Partner Needs & Self-Care
- Comprehensive Care Planning and Management
- Care Delivery Framework

Optional Modules

- Structural and Cultural Competency in Dementia Care
- Care Transitions
- Legal and Ethical Issues
- Care Partner Education about Medical Management
- End of Life and Palliative Care
- Urgencies and Emergencies
- Extreme Behavioral Manifestations and De-Escalation
- Role of the Nurse Care Manager
- Nurse Leadership
- Nursing Care of the Patient with Parkinson's Disease
- Leading the Conversation: Advance Serious Illness Preparations and Planning in Early-stage Dementia
- Roles of RN dementia specialists in diverse care settings

JOIN US in improving the healthcare of people, families, and communities living with dementia